It is Energy Star compliant, and requires no warmup time before copying, therefore its autoshutoff feature will not cause wait times when waking up the machine. The design of the unit is fairly compact, measuring 13.3 inches by 19.1 inches by 17.3 inches, and weighing around 55 pounds. It features a 30page automatic document feeder for quickly scanning multiple pages, as well as a flatbed scanning surface for media that won't fit into the feeder. The unit supports reduction and enlargement from 70% to 141%, and has both automatic and manual exposure settings to improve copy quality. The machine supports paper sizes up to legal size. The laser toner cartridge is easy to access and replace, and affordable toner prices make it even more economical.

It has a very low cost per page, much like Okidata 42127402 toner. Copy quality is impressive for the units size and price. The automatic and manual exposure adjustments help users achieve the best possible scan for each copy. Copy speed is quite good, at around 12 copies per minute.
